

Camping

The nature is truly fascinating for those who like to stay on the open. A sign for this is the high number of well equipped automobile-camps on the area of the Split-Dalmatian region. If you come by your own car you can convince yourself that on the roads are many signs for camps. If you want to accommodate yourself in one of the camps in the area of our region, you should visit camps in Duce which are among the best ...

Camping

There are two instincts that lead people to camping: the desire for freedom and a return to nature. Croatia, as a country of high safety, stunning natural surroundings and numerous camps, ideally fulfils these wishes!

Camps vary in size from large camp-settlements with various kinds of infrastructure and free-time content, to a large number of small camps of which there are some 300, mostly in Dalmatia, situated in the gardens and yards of private owners.

In those small camps most of the camping is done with personal equipment. They are open from May to October.

Camping in this region means:

- mild mediterranean climate, pleasant warm summer and mild spring and autumn
- the coast is beautiful with bays, beaches, pine woods and perfect small littoral villages
- beautiful sea, sandy beaches, possibility to practice all water sports and to enjoy a sea tailor-made for swimming, without big waves and tides and the magic world of Islands
- healthy food with fish, olive oil, vegetables, praised wines prevailing...

Croatia is the mere camping destination: quite a third of all visitors to Croatia are campers, Croatian campings are various, safe and friendly, situated on the most beautiful locations and directly to the sea, offering freedom and a real contact with nature.
